Make winter your wonderland!

There are so many ways to enjoy the great outdoors when winter arrives. The Fox Cities' expanding trail network and outstanding park system are wonderful anytime—but they take on an extra sparkle this time of year.

This map highlights just a few of the hundreds of parks and trails in our region. Hike, ski, skate, bike, sled—get outdoors in the snow and get moving. The natural beauty of the Fox Cities in winter awaits.

If you'd love to see even more outdoor adventure amenities in the Fox Cities, join and support one of the many non-profits working behind the scenes to make it happen. Check out organizations like Fox Cities Greenways, Northeast Wisconsin Trails (IMBA Chapter), Fox Cities Cycling Association, and Cycling Without Age.

FOX CITIES GREENWAYS, INC. is a non-profit organization founded in 1995 and funded by annual membership dues, grants and donations. Our mission is foster the development and preservation of trails and greenways in our community. With your support, we can:

- Develop and protect environmental corridors for future generations
- Provide safe travel routes for bikes and pedestrians
- Encourage environmental planning and trail development
- Expand recreational opportunities on the Fox Cities Waterways

See how you can help at foxcitiesgreenways.org or connect with us on Facebook.

There's so much winter fun in the Fox Cities that we may have missed an adventure or two. To experience it all, visit the park and recreation departments of each community or natural area for complete information on facilities, programs, and trails.
